PRIZES FOR FIRST AID

RED CROSS OFFERS PREMIUMS FOR BEST FIRST AID WORK DURING YEAR

A circular from the Pacific division of the Red Cross, addressed to the chairman of the first aid committee, has been received by the local chapter. It reads as follows:

It is the desire of this bureau to draw your attention to the prizes offered by the American Red Cross for the best first aid work performed during each calendar year:

First prize	$50.00
Second prize	25.00
Third prize	15.00
Fourth prize	10.00

Competition for these prizes is open to all holders of Red Cross first aid certificates, and in special cases, to others who have been instructed in first aid under the auspices of the Red Cross and yet may not hold certificates.

These prizes are not, however, open to railroad men, for whom special prizes in like amounts are provided from a fund known as the "William Howard Taft Fund."

The prizes provided for in this fund are awarded to the individuals doing the best first aid work among railroad men during the calendar year.

The report of this work should be in the form of a sworn statement by the individual, accompanied by the sworn statement of the physician by whom the injured party was first treated.

It is suggested that you give this matter as wide a publicity as possible, furnishing this bureau with reports, affidavits, etc., not later than Nov. 29, 1918.

This circular was signed by Hermon F. Wilson, M. D., director of the bureau of first aid, and has the approval of A. B. C. Dohrmann, acting manager.

A FAREWELL TRIBUTE

Members of the W. C. T. U. are requested to attend in a body the funeral services of W. B. Gaylord, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Pulliam undertaking parlors.

Each one is asked to bring a flower or green spray. During the years that Mrs. Gaylord was president of the Glendale Union, Mr. Gaylord was always her cheerful helper, encouraging and sympathizing with her in the work of the organization and in the cause of prohibition, of which he was also always a loyal supporter. We pay farewell tribute to a courteous Christian gentleman and brother. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

MRS. RUBY J. SMART,
President of City Union.

RED CROSS CALL

WOMEN SUMMONED TO SERVICE ON GARMENTS URGENTLY NEEDED IN EUROPE

A letter has just been received from the Pacific Coast division by the local Red Cross chapter, reiterating the hope expressed in previous communications that the women of the chapter will realize the urgent need of garments for French and Belgian relief and devote every possible moment to the work. One garment now will be of more value than six times as many later on, for the need is immediate and if supplied lives will be saved which otherwise would succumb to cold and hardship.

Mrs. Bartlett, acting vice chairman, has asked the Evening News to emphasize this matter and urge every woman who uses a needle to give some portion of her time to this very important service. Now that work on surgical dressings is discontinued, the women who have been giving time to that department will be free for this new work, and they are asked to report to headquarters on Brand boulevard. Those who are not able to sew at the workroom will be permitted to take work home.

PRAISE SERVICE

On Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock the Missionary Societies of the Presbyterian Church will hold their annual praise service. This is always an occasion of much interest and profit, but at this time has reason to be of particular moment to all. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, will preside and conduct a devotional hour of thanksgiving and praise. With so many causes for gratitude to God, both as a nation and as individuals, it is peculiarly appropriate to enter heartily into such a service. The principal speaker of the evening will be Miss Edna Lowe of Los Angeles, a young lady of great personal charm and gifted mind. She has been engaged in educational work in the foreign field and tells in a thrilling manner of the great work she so thoroughly enjoyed. All are most cordially invited to attend and bring their friends. Tuesday, Nov. 26, 7:30 p. m., Presbyterian Church.

SCHOOLS TO REMAIN CLOSED

Dr. James Shults, superintendent of the city schools, reports that the board of education does not consider it judicious to open the schools Monday. The situation as regards the influenza epidemic is being followed with care, and parents are asked to watch the Evening News for information which will be published from time to time relative to school work.

UNITED WAR WORK

COMMITTEE'S REPORT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS WHICH PUT GLENDALE OVER TOP

The Evening News is glad to be able to present the following fine detailed report of the United War Work campaign in Glendale, compiled by Mrs. Charles H. Toll, chairman of the woman's committee, by Miss Eva Daniels, secretary, and by the voluntary workers who assisted them.

It shows that 2,228 residents of Glendale subscribed $9,575.10, of which $8,297.45 was cash, leaving a balance of $1,277.65 to be collected in later instalments. To be added to these subscriptions is the sum of $1,232.70 contributed in Los Angeles for which Glendale receives credit, making the city's total credit $10,807.80, or $800 more than its quota.

When the fact is remembered that this is tax-paying time, and the many other demands which our people have been called upon to meet, not the least of which has been the sums expended for doctors and nursing during the influenza epidemic, the gift of more than ten thousand dollars to these efficient agencies for the comfort and the welfare in other ways of American boys in the war zone of France and her allies is distinctly creditable.

Following is the report:

AMERICAN WAR CASUALTIES 236,117

CHIEF OF STAFF GENERAL MARCH INDICATES ARMY ORGANIZATIONS SOON TO RETURN FROM EUROPE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Nov. 23.—Chief of Staff General Marsh announced today to newspaper men that American casualties of the war totalled 236,117, divided as follows:

Killed or died of wounds, 36,154.
Died of disease, 14,811.
Unclassified deaths, 2,204.
Wounded in action, 179,625.
Prisoners, 2,163.
Missing, 1,160.

The Americans captured 44,000 Germans.

The Red Cross revealed today that the Austrians took just one American prisoner, and he soon will be repatriated.

Discussing the plans for demobilization, General March indicated that the following organizations soon will return from Europe: The 31st, 34th, 38th, 39th, 76th, 84th, 86th and 87th divisions, nine coast artillery regiments, two field artillery brigades, and the aero squadron now stationed in England, said to number 18,000 men.

"Demobilization in this country has been proceeding for a week," General March said. Most of the men discharged, he said, had asked to be sent back to their homes.

MUCH TALK ABOUT McADOO'S RESIGNATION

MANY RUMORS OF HIS REASONS FOR RESIGNING AND HIS POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Nov. 23.—Carter Glass, assistant secretary of the treasury, Leffingwell and Chairman Baruch of the war industries board are the men most favorably mentioned as possible successors to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

Many rumors are in circulation as to the underlying reason of McAdoo's resignation, including one rumor that he has broken with the President, but the most general belief is that the reason was set forth in his letter of resignation and that there is nothing in the background.

NEARING GERMANY'S GREAT RIVER

THE AMERICAN ARMY THIS MORNING WAS WITHIN A FEW MILES OF THE RHINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

With the American Army in France, Nov. 23.—The First and Second Divisions of the American army at 10 o'clock this morning were within a few miles of the Rhine. If they maintain their present rate of advance throughout the day, they will be in Germany before night.

The British are less than twenty miles from Liege, the last important Belgian city to be repatriated.

JAPAN ASKS FOR PLACE AT PEACE TABLE

HER DELEGATES WILL ASK FOR RECOGNITION OF SEVEN BASIC CLAIMS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Nov. 23.—Diplomats today were authority for the statement that Japan expects to win a big place in the sun at the coming peace conference. It is understood the Japanese peace delegates will present seven basic clauses on the Japanese position at the conference, as follows:

1. Concurrence with England on matters regarding the freedom of the seas and other subjects affecting the British-Japanese alliance.
2. Sympathy with the United States and the Allies on the protection of small nations and prevention of future wars.
3. Recognition of the necessity for Japan to maintain order in Siberia.
4. Recognition of the Japanese financial, commercial and industrial sphere of influence in China.
5. Japanese occupation of Kiau Chau under terms satisfactory to China.
6. Japan to have a protectorate over the Marshall and Caroline Islands and other former German islands in the Pacific, which the Japanese have seized.
7. Reciprocal rights to Japanese citizens throughout the world.

The Japanese emphasize the point that their government recently has been greatly democratized.

TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES AGAINST FICKERT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Superior Judge E. P. Logan today announced that he would have an investigation started of the charges against District Attorney Fickert contained in John D. Densmore's report to the department of labor on the Thomas Mooney case. He said he would confer today with Foreman McCarthy of the grand jury and that the grand jury would meet Monday to consider the case.

Mooney issued a statement from the death house at San Quentin today, saying that unless the government stripped authority from "these financial bandits, operating under the guise of officialdom, the government is a mockery and deserves the contempt of the world."

VETERANS ACTIVE

N. P. BANKS POST HOLDS ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AFTER LONG INTERVAL

N. P. Banks Post and Corps held their regular monthly meeting on Friday after an interval of two months of suspension owing to the influenza embargo.

A large attendance of members evidenced the fact that the prevailing epidemic had not invaded the ranks of the old vets to any appreciable degree. As usual, the dinner served by the good ladies of the corps was up to the standard of excellence they have always maintained.

A short, informal program occupied the intervening hour between dinner and the meeting of the corps, at which Comrade J. H. Henry rendered several songs in his usual effective manner. A short introductory by Commander C. H. Clark and a timely and earnest short talk by Comrade U. C. Gibbons and an original poem by Comrade Geo. W. Sanford made the occasion an enjoyable one.

Thursday evening, December 5, Mrs. Louise Purnell will give a reception at her new home, 337 Riverside Drive, to the comrades of G. A. R. Post and members of Relief Corps, and a pleasant time is assured, as the good president of the corps never does things stintingly and it is hoped all will avail themselves of the occasion.

By the death of Comrade W. B. Van Kirk, senior vice departmental commander, Department of California and Nevada, Comrade C. H. Clark of N. P. Banks Post, Glendale, succeeds him in this position by virtue of his position as junior vice commander, to which office he was elected at the last department encampment.

IN HONOR OF MRS. WALLACE

Under the spreading oaks of Griffith Park, Mrs. A. E. Wallace of Chicago was honoree at an al fresco luncheon, at which Mrs. A. S. Chase was hostess and a number of friends and neighbors were guests, Friday. Mrs. Wallace, who is 82 years young, is the mother of Mrs. J. J. Fraser, who formerly resided on Riverdale Drive, but is now living in Orange. Mrs. Wallace and her daughter are now house guests of Mrs. Minnie Patterson of Riverdale Drive, and on Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Packer gave a dinner in their honor.

INFLUENZA BULLETIN

Assistant Health Officer Chobe is very much encouraged over the influenza situation. He says no new cases were reported yesterday in Glendale and he has good reason to believe the epidemic is on the wane. At the emergency hospital in fire house number two there are but five patients, and some of those will soon be leaving.

ANNUAL PRAISE SERVICE

There was a fairly good attendance at the annual praise service of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Tropico Presbyterian Church. Members gathered for a luncheon which was served at noon and which was followed by the afternoon session, at which Mrs. Blow, Home Mission secretary for this Presbytery, was the speaker. She dwelt on the new work which the problems of reconstruction will bring to the church and expressed the conviction that it would be called upon to do more civic work in connection with its missionary activities.

BIRTHDAY AND THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION

A delightful social function was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Williams on Maple avenue, where a surprise dinner was given in celebration of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Ruth Williams, which also was a combined victory and Thanksgiving celebration. A feature of the event was the reading of a letter just received from a son of the house, Paul Williams, in the army aviation service at Langley Field, Va., where he has just been made a sergeant. He likes the work so well it is probable he will exercise his privilege of remaining in service. Decorations for the event suggested Thanksgiving and also Fourth of July, for the national colors were used in the decoration of a handsome birthday cake, the gift of one of the guests, which was studded with the appropriate number of candles. The wish in which all united when the candles were blown out was "Peace on Earth, Good Will to All." Covers were laid for eight, the guest list including Mrs. J. Troy of Hollywood, aunt and cousins of the honoree.

DIES OVERSEAS

HARRY L. COLTON OF BURBANK GIVES UP HIS LIFE IN ARMY CAMP IN FRANCE

The press reports of army losses have brought word of another boy who gave his life over there, who was so close a neighbor that he seems just like our own; in fact, he did belong to a local organization here. His name was Harry L. Colton of Burbank, Cal. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Colton and brother of Mesdames I. R. Pearson and J. H. Huntley of that city. Entrained for Camp Kearny the 24th of last June, he did not have long to wait for his overseas voyage, for he was in France by the middle of July, and on the 28th of October he was dead from spinal meningitis, without having realized his hope of getting to the front line.

The best type of native Californian, he was born in Santa Rosa, June 6, 1890, and thirteen years later came with his parents to Burbank, where he has lived ever since. His death is a blow to every one who knew him, for he had a sunny disposition and he was always thoughtful of those around him. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Burbank and of the Fraternal Brotherhood of Glendale, and had quite a circle of friends in this city, who sympathize with the bereaved family.

BUILDING STARTS

Charles W. Kent & Son, our oldest established construction firm, state that they are starting work on a new residence, to cost about $2,500, on Lomita avenue, which is the first building to be erected in Glendale since the ban was lifted on construction work by the war industries board.

Mr. Kent predicts the greatest period of prosperity in our history will be upon us before many months.

ROBINSON-BROWN WEDDING

Mrs. L. N. Hagood announces the marriage of her daughter, Zoula C. Robinson, to Merritt E. Brown, on August 27, 1918, at San Bernardino. The marriage was not to have been announced until the bride was 18 and had finished high school, but on account of Mr. Brown's not having to go to war it was decided to make it known.

They will be at home in Glendale after December 1.

EVENTS AT KELLER SCHOOL

The class at the Keller School of Dancing on Brand boulevard reopened Friday afternoon, and the school is to be open both morning and afternoon today, beginning at 10 a. m. with the small beginners. In the afternoon the girls' class will meet at 3 o'clock and the boys at 4.

This evening Mrs. Keller resumes the social dances which will be such a feature of her establishment. Tonight's affair will be a Liberty ball. Beautiful flag decorations will make the attractive ballroom gay with color, and a good orchestra will furnish the appropriate music for the dance program.

In response to a strong demand from the young married set and from high school pupils, Mrs. Keller is organizing a class in ballroom dancing, which is to meet Friday evenings. There are a good many young people in the city who wish instruction in the new dances, and these are likely to be very popular classes.

The fame of pupils of the Keller school is not confined to Glendale. Mrs. Keller reports that several of them are to appear at a benefit to be given at the Walker theatre in Los Angeles for Union Circle No. 19, composed of the Woman's Auxiliary to the G. A. R.

FUNERAL OF CHILD

The funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cole will be held Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the home of J. B. Doner, 137 North Orange street, where the little one passed away. Burial will be made in Inglewood Cemetery. Scovern-Letton-Frey will have charge.

SCRAP BOOKS APPRECIATED

Scrap books which were turned in to this chapter for army hospitals were sent by it to Camp Kearny. That they were appreciated is shown by the following letter just received:

Camp Kearny, Nov. 20, 1918.

Glendale Chapter American Red Cross, Glendale, Cal. Friends: The scrap books for hospital received. We will make good use of them in our work here. Thank you. I am, yours truly, DAVID BLACK,

CHRISTMAS ROLL CALL

About one-third of the people in California, Arizona and Nevada are members of the Red Cross. This proportion is not enough to satisfy the western spirit. The Pacific Division wants to do things in the biggest, finest way possible. Because it has more members enrolled to the thousand population than any other division in the country does not satisfy it either. Only the best is good enough out here in the west, and nothing short of 100 per cent membership in the Red Cross should satisfy any state, city or community in our territory.

The Christmas Roll Call for Universal Red Cross membership is scheduled for the week before Christmas—December 16 to 23. To be an American these days is to account ourselves blest and honored. The only to be 100 per cent American is to belong to the organized SOUL of our nation and be listed on the Honor Roll of those who serve Humanity. The thing that put the entire population of the country solidly behind the war was the feeling that we were not in it for any selfish end. Through the Red Cross we have served our way into the confidence and into the hearts of every Allied Nation. The opportunity for unselfish services is now greater than ever. Even the enemy will realize that the American heart is the National Heart, and that in both war and peace we are in fact as well as in name "All for Hunanity." The Red Cross must mean ALL America. There must be no weak link in the chain. Universal membership—That's all.

The Linen Shower for France, which was originally scheduled for September 30, and postponed because the "flu" emidemic was threatening the country, is now called for the week of November 25th to 31st. Chapters have been given instructions. The pleasing feature of this drive is the intimate spirit of personal sacrifice it entails entirely aside from a money consideration. The linen is not to be purchased, but contributed from stores already accumulated in households. The need is just as great as ever—so is America's heart.

Lucky Canteen workers! Theirs is to be the privilege of the last Red Cross service to the boys on their homeward journey. The last good eats, the last steaming coffee, the last smokes and smiles and cheers, the last memory of the blessed uniform—is all to be theirs. Not only lucky, but busy workers they will be, for in addition to two million men overseas, we have a million and a half in camps and cantonments here at home, besides many thousands wounded and convalescing. Canteens at all points of debarkation are are making elaborate preparations for this service. The Pacific Division Bureau of Canteen will send out instructions about the decoration of stations and reception of boys. There will be a genuine western welcome for our boys—and as long as there is a woman left in the service there will not be a single boy who will reach his own home hungry.

SHEEP AND WOOL FOR JAPAN

It is interesting to note that after a thorough investigation in this country regarding the plan of campaign for more sheep and more wool by Issa Tanimura, commissioner of livestock for Japan, it is the purpose of the leading Japanese livestock men to create a bureau, consisting of seven expert wool men, together with a score of assistants and secretaries. The plan of action outlined will require ten years to work out, but it is the intention to make Japan self-supporting as far as the country's wool requirements are concerned.

PRIEST THANKS YANKEES

(By Fred S. Ferguson, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

With the Americans in Lorraine, Oct. 31—(By Mail.)—"Your gallant New England troops have just set us free," is the keynote of a letter of thanks from a French Cure which will be treasured and retained by the famous division from the New England States for years.

The letter was written by Cure A. Leclerc, of the little villages of Rupt-on-Woevre, immediately after the battle that drove the Germans from the St. Mihiel salient. Tender in thought for his parishioners, reverent in paying honor to the Americans, the Cure's letter is prized by the New Englanders more than an official citation.

"Since September, 1917," wrote the Cure, "the barbarians have held the heights of the Meuse, have foully murdered three hostages from Meuilly, have shelled Rupt, and on July 23, 1915, forced its inhabitants to scatter to the four corners of France.

"I, who remain at my little listening post upon the advice of my bishop, feel certain, sir, that I do but speak for Monseigneur Ginisty, Lord Bishop of Verdun, my parishioners of Rupt, Neuilly and Genicourt, and the people of this vicinity in conveying to you and your associates the heartfelt and unforgettable gratitude of all.

"Several of your comrades lie at rest in our truly Christian and French soil.

"Their ashes shall be cared for as if they were our own. We shall cover their graves with flowers and shall kneel by them as their own families would do, with a prayer to God to reward with eternal glory these heroes fallen on the field of honor, and to bless the division and generous America."

The letter was written to the commanding general of the division just after the New Englanders had made their now famous night advances to Vigneulles, which closed the St. Mihiel salient. Rupt-on-Woevre was never held by the boche, but the line was only a short distance away. For four years the bell of the little village church was silent. Rupt was a village of sorrow. Then came the Americans. The Germans were hurled back, and with tears streaming down his face Cure Leclerc asked whether he might again ring the church bell. The American commander told him by all means to ring it. Doughboys escorted the Cure back to his church. He grasped the old rope that he had not touched in four years, and the bell's song of victory and liberation rang out over the valley.

DIDN'T WANT TO KNOW

Mrs. Mugweed called on the Pentons one day. The door was opened by the youngest Penton child, a very little girl.

"How are you, my dear?" asked the caller.

"Very well, thank you!" returned the child.

"Now, my dear, you should ask me how I am," said the woman chidingly.

"But I don't want to know!" the child replied, honestly but unexpectedly."—Ex.

PUDGY'S BRAVERY

"Pudgy" is a Y. M. C. A. man, well known to many American soldiers in France. He recently spent a night in a front-line dugout. While he was there a deafening barrage rained around the dugout for a full half an hour.

Everyone wanted to know afterward how Pudgy liked it.

"I fear," he confessed, and the everlasting smile broadened as he spoke, "that I'm no braver now than before."

ENGLISH VILLAGE HAS NO YOUNG MEN

(By United Press)

Village of Potten End, Hertfordshire, Eng., Nov. 4. (By Mail).—The English countryside is today just as quaint and peaceful and beautiful as ever. But it has lost its young men.

On the village green last night the countryfolk gathered at sundown as they have done for several centuries. The duckpound in the middle of the green; the Red Lion Inn, (200 years old) tight in a hedgewall on the north; and the heathery moor to the west—all were just as they were before the war, except.

There were no young men.

They who came together on the green were women, girls, children, old men, and occasionally a man of 50. Two sober-faced young women were pushing baby carriages.

A motherly woman of 60 presided at the bar in the Red Lion (the bar was perhaps 4 feet long in a room about 6 feet square.) On the right was another brown-walled room with a bare table in the center. A dozen old men were smoking and sipping their ale. At the head of the table sat a soldier, home on leave.

The innkeeper's daughter was banging a tinpanny piano in the tiny parlor. She played to an empty room and to a soldier's portrait above the instrument.

The Inn is a squat little place, mostly grown to roof and many-barreled chimneys (the kind you used to see in your Mother Goose book, with storks standing on them). The cracks between the brick shingles are stuffed with moss.

A wooden tablet nailed to the wall of the village church—by the door—displays the "Roll of Honor." Underneath on a little wooden shelf a few sprays of flowers tell their story.

It was a Hertsfordshire regiment, with its quota from Potten End, that was practically wiped out at Gallipoli.

From the common this morning one could see squads of Women's Land Army girls, in khaki, shocking wheat in the hedgeframed fields.

Behind, the roofs and chimneys of the village were just visible over the masses of trees, shrubs, and hedges which form the basis of every English landscape. In every one of those homes was 1, perhaps 2, 3 or 4 empty chairs, many of which would never be filled.

A crowd of girls was blackberrying among the brambles and bracken on the moor.

Lovers Lane, smooth and grassy between high hedge-walls, was empty. A tiny girl in gingham and a bit of a boy with yellow curls were marching, hand in hand, into its far end.

CALL HIM "FINEST SOLDIER"

The two enormous, open windowed tents are crowded to capacity, and dotted all about the wide immaculate terrace (of the American military hospital at Neuilly) are men in rolling chairs. Only one is in bed, and the nurse stops before him because she wants me to meet the boy known to all the hospital as the finest soldier in any army.

"Tell her about yourself," she orders.

"Why, there's nothing to tell," smiles Arthur, "except that I was wounded about a month and a half ago. They kept me in a French hospital until day before yesterday. They told me there was nothin' doin' as far as I was concerned. I said, 'You take me to someone that can talk and then we'll see.' So they brought me here, and the doctor looks me over and says the reason why they didn't cut was because the chunk of iron was too close to my heart, and so I couldn't stand to take ether. 'However," says he, 'if you're game enough to let me do it without knockout drops——.' So I says Doc, I'm your man.' "

"And he never wiggled a toe," chimes the nurse.

"But," says Arthur, "I didn't care for it much when I heard his saw."—Carol Carey, in National Geographic Magazine.

NO WONDER THE HUNS TOOK LEAVES IN HASTE

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 23.—Bavarian school children are employed in the collection of leaf-hay, according to German newspapers reaching here. They are told the importance of the work, which is to supply food for army horses.

In Hanover 10,000 children are said to have assisted in harvesting.

FRENZIED ORATORY

He was a very excited orator and discoursed at length on what he considered to be the principles of his opponents. After a voluminous display of words, he wound up with:

"Believe me, friends, if it were possible to place these men on an uninhabited island, where human foot had never trod, it would not be five minutes before they had their hands in the pockets of the naked savages." (Loud applause).—Ex.

Personals

Miss Phoebe Adams of Glendale avenue is ill of influenza.

Tonio Moniot, son of Edward Moniot of Fernando Court, is very ill of pneumonia following influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Clark, who have been absent for some time, are expected home Tuesday.

Jacob J. Muhleman of 111 West Maple avenue, father of City Trustee Frank Muhleman, has been quite ill, but is better today.

Mrs. Leonhardt and family of Columbus avenue, who returned to Glendale about a year ago, have gone back to Sacramento to live. They left here Friday.

Miss Ethel Baker of Brand boulevard reports that her brother, Allen Baker, and her sister, Mrs. West of Gardena avenue, who have been seriously ill of influenza, are both better this morning.

The friends of Harold Latter of Boynton street, who has been in an officers' training camp in Virginia, have received a telegram advising them of his discharge from the army and stating that he will soon be on his way home.

Members of the Christmas package committee report that 45 boxes and labels have been given out to Glendale relatives of soldiers overseas who had not received labels. Up to Friday night 123 boxes had been mailed from this office.

Booth K. Franklin of Iona, Mich., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin, 246 North Central avenue. Mr. Franklin is a nephew of Mr. J. H. Franklin. He is charmed with this section of California.

The Parliamentary Section, in charge of Mrs. P. S. McNutt, will meet next Tuesday at the Masonic Temple at 1:30 o'clock, one hour previous to the regular meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, to determine if meetings shall continue during the epidemic.

Sergeant Patterson, son of Mrs. Minnie Patterson of Riverdale Drive, is now in an officers' training school at Camp Taylor, Ky. ,working for a commission. He could secure his discharge, but has written his mother he is inclined to stay and get his commission before coming home.

Mr. Blanford, teacher of geography and physical training at the Intermediate school, has been enjoying himself at San Fernando, Bakersfield and Los Angeles during his enforced vacation. He was in Glendale this week assisting at the office in the Intermediate school.

Eighteen to twenty members came out for the session of the K. of P. which was held Thursday evening at lodge headquarters in the K. of P. building at Brand and Park avenue. The evening was given over to the regular work, and no plans were made for the future.

Mrs. George G. Lemon of East Broadway is kept pretty closely occupied caring for her small son, Wilbur Lemon, who came down with influenza Thursday. He is much better this morning and his mother thinks he will be all right in a day or two. She reports that her neighbors, the George Rogers family, have had a serious time. Four have had the disease, only one of whom is able to be up and about, though all are improving.

There was an excellent attendance at the joint meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary and Home Missionary Society of the Glendale Congregational Church Thursday. The morning was given to Red Cross needlework and the afternoon to a session of the missionary society, at which reports were read of conditions in various parts of the field. Mrs. George Adams and Mrs. McCrea were active in leading the meeting, which was profitable and much enjoyed.

The little birds who fly around looking for important news to tell report that a new baby arrived in town Friday afternoon—a nine-pound boy, who is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Askeland, now residents of Burbank. The child was born at the residence of Mrs. Ellen L. Early on East Palmer avenue, and mother and son are doing well. Mrs. Askeland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pratt, who were residents of Glendale for a number of years, but who now also reside in Burbank.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lappin, former proprietors of the French cleaning works on East Broadway, and their little daughter, left this morning for San Diego, where Mr. Lappin has accepted a lucrative position with a dry cleaning plant. It will be remembered that Mr. Lappin's was one of the early cases of influenza, which terminated in pneumonia, and for a time he was critically ill. He believes that a change to the mild climate of San Diego and to the outdoor work he expects to have will be beneficial.

"A COPY"

Phila., Pa., Nov. 12, 1918
"The whole world, weary of war, indulged yesterday in a universal rejoicing—the first international Fourth of July—the future great Wilson Day of Thanksgiving. 'Righteousness and Peace have kissed each other.' The dream of the brotherhood of man seems about to be realized. Every Christian heart thrills with the prospect of what may be accomplished."
"Thanksgiving" is here.

The emergency hospital in fire station number two has only four patients at this writing. This is regarded as an indication that the influenza epidemic is nearly over.

Mrs. Ruby Smart, president of the City W. C. T. U., is recuperating from a severe cold which she contracted about a week ago and which has kept her confined to her bed most of the week.

Dr. Pritchard of Los Angeles will occupy the pulpit of Rev. O. P. Rider of the Tropico Presbyterian Church Sunday evening. Mr. Rider received a telephone message from him Saturday morning that he would be his guest that day.

ITALY WILL REBUILD HER MERCHANT FLEET

(By Henry Wood, United Press Correspondent.)

Rome, Nov. 23.—Italy is making it a point of national pride and honor that she will rebuild her mercantile marine fleet entirely in her own yards and with her own resources.

A program to this effect is now meeting with the most remarkable nation-wide support since cessation of hostilities.

To date there has been invested over 1,000,000,000 francs in installing 88 new ship building yards, and the number before the end of the year will be increased to over 100.

Italy estimates she will need 4,000,000 tons of shipping with which to replace her boats lost during the war and bring her entire mercantile fleet up to the capacity necessary to handle the business that it is now certain will come.

CALL FOR LINEN SHOWER

Mrs. Bartlett, acting chairman of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter, announces that next week, from the 25th to the 30th of November, is the period set apart for a linen shower for Red Cross hospitals. The American Red Cross has cabled that the hospitals are in need of the following supplies: Bath towels, hand towels, handkerchiefs, napkins and sheets. The quota assigned the local chapter is 133 bath towels, 266 hand towels, 178 handkerchiefs, 13 napkins and 80 sheets.

Each family is asked to contribute one article or set of articles from its reserve stock. In this way, without material reduction of the household stock or sources of supply, large quantities may be secured to meet this call. All articles should be new or substantially new, and should be of strong rather than fine texture.

Dimensions asked for are as follows: Bath towels, 19x38 inches; hand towels, 18x30 inches; handkerchiefs, 18x18 inches; napkins, 14x14 inches; sheets, 64x102 (heavy unbleached muslin only), with two-inch hem at top and one-inch hem at bottom.

It is necessary that all articles, whether new or otherwise, should be laundered before inspection, sorting and packing.

MISADVENTURES OF SERGEANT GEORGE GRIST

The ill luck which seems to have pursued George Grist ever since he entered the army held to the last. He was one of 3,000 who had to disembark November 14 from the transport in which he had expected to cross to France. George's misadventures have taught him philosophy, and he was trying to make the best of life at the Newport News camp when the "bunch of boys" with whom he had been associated came down with measles. George has had them, but not being able to tell which particular variety, he was quarantined on suspicion. He writes his mother that the only thing to which he looks forward to vary the monotony of his existence is her daily letter, but he is hoping to have his discharge before long and then to be free to come home. When that release takes place he plans to journey by way of Nashville, Tenn., his old home town, and stop for a visit there, where he says he has been told there are lots of pretty girls.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY ROAD BUDGET

Los Angeles county's road budget for the fiscal year 1818-19 is expected to raise in taxes approximately a million dollars for the good road fund, highway maintenance fund and road district funds. The budget was made up on a war basis, according to Frank H. Joyner, county road commissioner, because at the time it was considered there was no assurance that the war would end soon. The money provided for in the budget, the exact amount of which will not be determined until all taxes have been collected, will be available quarterly. None of this money has been used up to the present time and practically all of it will be expended during the next calendar year. What remains of it at the close of the fiscal year, next July, will be subject to such disposition as the board of supervisors may deem most expedient. Following is an estimate of the amounts that will be raised for the various funds and the apportionment of the same:

Good Road Fund

Administration	$ 41,000.00
General engineering	7,500.00
Bridge construction	150,000.00
Bridge maintenance	40,000.00
Equipment	12,500.00
Equipment maintenance	17,500.00
Improvements	5,000.00
Maintenance paved highways (non-bond roads)	50,000.00
Supplies and material (undistributed)	60,000.00

Highway Maintenance Fund

Highway maintenance (bond roads)	$160,000.00

Road District Funds

District No. 1	$165,000.00
District No. 3	35,000.00
District No. 4	230,000.00
District No. 5	70,000.00

LO, THE POOR ANZAC!

London, Nov. 3. (By Mail).—Many Australian soldiers now find themselves between the devil and the deep blue sea.

It has been arranged that those who have been over here since the beginning of the war shall be granted six months' leave to enable them to go home and see their folks over Christmas. A great number of them, during the past four years, have married English girls, and the question now arises as to whether they shall take their wives back home with them or leave them behind.

An Anzac may take his wife home with him if he pays the expenses of the voyage, but few have been able to afford the expense. As an alternative he can take 75 days' furlough in England on full pay, with an additional allowance of 75c a day. Those who have no strong ties at home have decided to accept this privilege, but others who are longing for a sight of father, mother and all the rest of the old folks at home, are sadly torn between their filial and conjugal loves.

TUJUNGA

Word was received by Mr. Johnson on Monday of the death of Robert Capelius at Pomona, who came here from Detroit over a year ago and later went to Brawley, finally coming to Pomona. He was a kindly, jolly sort of a young man and liked by all. No reason for his death was given but it is supposed the "Flu."

Such a glorious rain arrived Sunday night,—notwithstanding the weather man said rain for Northern Cal. but none for the south. It continued Monday and into Tuesday. This section received 2.60 inches of rain and the clouds still holding rain indications.

Mr. Dyer of Los Angeles moved up here on Monday afternoon, and the rain during the night discouraged him so that he returned on Tuesday. Had he waited a day, until the sun was shining nothing could have driven him away.

Mr. McCue has returned from his work at Brawley, and looks as if the change of climate had been good for him. We understand that Mr. Munson has also returned.

Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Maygrove, who formerly lived here. Her friends all unite in wishing her much happiness.

Miss Lucy Lee, who went from Tujunga to Ashland, Oregon, is on her homeward trip, and at present in San Bernardino.

Harry Baker of San Ysidro Road has finished a large house for the care of his rabbits. He has many of them and will market them in the city.

The beautiful home place of Dr. Spates on Walnut is for rent, the doctor finding his time so occupied in his profession that he cannot get time to come out in the valley to live.

Mrs. Shaner is in Los Angeles for a few days. All the churches and federations, schools and clubs, are still under the "flu" ban and will remain so for at least two weeks more.

Word has been received here that one of the teachers, Mrs. Strain, is ill at her home in Los Angeles of the prevailing epidemic. Unless it comes to an end soon, all other news will be scarce and your correspondent will be reduced to monthly statements of affairs. No one goes or comes and business and pleasure are at standstill.

Mr. and Mrs. LaRue have moved into the Shivas place in El Centro.

Mrs. Fairfield reports that 100 garments were sent in to the French relief the past month, and the management compliments them on the work and cleanliness.

LA CANADA

Services will be resumed at the Congregational Church on Sunday morning November 24, 1918. Sunday school at ten o'clock, Mr. J. Wilbur Seright superintending. A full complement of classes will be observed with expectancy of increasing interest and enlarging attendance after the involuntary closing of some seven weeks.

The sermon at eleven o'clock will be preached by the Rev. John L. Maile, the theme to be appropriate to local conditions and also to the marvelous world outlook and the commanding peace situation as held by the Allied nations. Let a full attendance be present from the community.

Friends of Russell Stickney looked forward to seeing him this week, as a telegram arrived from him Tuesday saying he was on his way home. He has been on the transport U. S. S. O'Brien. His hopes were not realized and his relatives are disappointed. He was called back to his ship and they do not know when he will get a furlough. Howard Stickney, it is said, is to be transferred to the Pacific Coast destroyer supplies department as secretary.

Samuel Durand, son of Mrs. Nellie Durand, who has had a rather monotonous assignment to a lightship which receives mail only once in two weeks, and who has therefore been cut off from the excitements of war, was compensated in part by being given leave in time to be in New York when news of the signing of the armistice arrived and the big celebration took place. He writes it was the greatest experience one could imagine. The crowds on the streets were simply immense and the enthusiasm beyond description. Now that war is at an end he doesn't know whether or not he will be relieved of his lightship post. It is possible he may be sent to European waters for patrol duty.

Mr. Sturtevant, father of Mrs. Selleck, has gone to the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle. Mr. Selleck and his daughter are convalescent from influenza.

A. G. Williams harvested about two tons of walnuts from his grove in El Monte. He has returned to his home in La Canada and will henceforth need to make only occasional visits to the ranch. Mrs. Williams is anticipating a visit from her sister, Mrs. R. Welch, and daughter, Frankie, of Three Rivers, Tulare County, whose arrival is scheduled for about holiday time. She is also looking forward to a visit from a brother in the east, N. B. Britten of Platteville, Wis. She hopes his visit and that of her sister will coincide, but, if not, there will be a family reunion later at Three Rivers.

La Canada schools are not in session and no announcement has yet been made of when they will open.

The meeting of the La Canada Thursday club, which was to have occurred last week, has been postponed for a month.

Red Cross work is still going on as usual at the regular headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Metcalf, who both came down with influenza at the same time and were taken to Thornycroft Hospital, were brought home a few days ago. Mrs. Metcalf is still too ill to have the care of her children, and they are with Mrs. Detour, who is also attending to some business matters for the family. Mr. Metcalf is up, but not well enough to attend to his duties as postmaster, and Mr. Detour is still attending to them and looking after the store.

The tenant house which Mr. Nekuda has been building is nearly completed.

No new cases of influenza have been reported here recently, and those who have been sick are getting well.

Rev. Walter Murphy and wife, whose home is on North La Canada Boulevard, have gone to Boston for two months for a rest.

Leon Ritts, who spends his winters in La Canada and who was expected November 1, is said to have arrived to inspect the beautiful new home that is being built for him in the foothills. It is said to be a surprise for his wife and daughter and will cost approximately $125,000. It is nearing completion and is one of the beauty spots of the district, and stands out like a jewel in its elevated setting.

The La Canada Thursday Club, which was to have met last week, was postponed until the regular meeting time next month, when it will be entertained by Mrs. Maynard on Burr avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. White heard from their son, Manton, last week. His letter told of severe marches, but did not state where he was or give many details of his soldier life.

The paving of Burr avenue has been completed and the street opened to traffic, after being closed for a month or two. As it is a much used thoroughfare, the improvement is very welcome, as it was in bad condition before.

SUNLAND

The ban has been lifted in Sunland and there will be church in the First Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Wester will preach at 11 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Sue Johnson and her sister, Mrs. Seymore, and children, have come to Sunland to live for the winter. They are nicely located in Mrs. Johnson's bungalow on Sherman avenue.

News of the death of Ed Wilconsin, on the battleship Pittsburg, was received by Mr. Percy. Ed died of pneumonia, the first one of the valley boys to give up his life.

We were misinformed last week about M. V. Hartranft moving to Los Angeles. He has rented his ranch to Mr. Hood, but will still make Sunland his home. Lazy Lonesome Ranch is too attractive a place to leave. We are glad Mr. Hartranft has decided to remain.

The family of John Fisher, who have all been ill with the "flu," are all better and Mr. Fischer is back at his work in the olive factory.

Mrs. William Blumfield had a very severe attack of gastritis and was ill for a few days, but is now better.

Mrs. C. Beckmeyer is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, this week.

The walnut crop in Sunland is the best ever produced here. The fine, large nuts with full meats are bringing 30 cents a pound.

About one more week of the grape picking. The rain has held off, giving the ranchers a good chance to harvest the grapes, which has been an immense crop.

Quite an accident occurred at the corner of Summit avenue and Sherman street when two cars collided. No one was badly hurt. One car was smashed up and had to be towed out. This is a dangerous corner and should have slow down signals.

LOS ANGELES

News of the death from influenza of Joe Schrank, at San Francisco, was received by friends in Sunland Friday. Mrs. Schrank was Miss Bertha Wilde and her many friends will be grieved at her loss. Besides his wife, he left a 5-months-old daughter.

Mrs. Kirschman, who has been caring for her son, Darwin, who is ill in Pasadena, will return home Sunday. Darwin is better.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth of Turlock, brother of Mrs. Lancaster, have leased the Mears place and have moved in. We are glad to see new people come to Sunland.

The Red Cross held an all-day session Wednesday at their room on Central street to sew on hospital garments. Quite a bit of work was accomplished.

LA CRESCENTA

Mrs. William Brownfield, wife of Dr. Brownfield, who left about two weeks ago for a camp in New Mexico after receiving a commission as Second Lieutenant, has heard from her husband since the armistice was signed but he does not yet know when he will be relieved from duty there. He may be detained some time.

Second Lieutenant Phil R. Johnson who left about three weeks ago for a Virginia army camp, has been sick since his arrival there, but whether it was influenza or some other complaint from which he suffered has not been reported. When last heard from he did not know when he might expect to be discharged from service.

The Sunday school will hold next Sunday Nov. 24, at the usual hour of 10 a'clock, followed by religious services conducted by Mr. J. B. Mc Laughlin.

The resumption of public worship and teaching will be appreciated after the enforced closing of some weeks.

At seven thirty o'clock preaching services will be conducted by the Rev. John L. Maile of Los Angeles. The topic will be appropriate to the ocassion of resuming services after some weeks of suspension, and will recognize our relations to the world-wide situation of readjusted nations, the magnificent results achieved, and the call for onward progress in civic and world-wide life. Opportunity will be given for the exchange of ideas upon the great outlook.

School opened on Tuesday and with nearly a full attendance. Miss Clara Jones is still away, but Mrs. Harrah, her sister, is substituting for her.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Matson celebrated their fifty-third wedding anniversary last Sunday.

Miss Lynch of Altadena has been the guest of Mrs. Nicholson.

Walter Andersen is still at Camp Mills, Long Island, but writes that he may yet be sent overseas.

Your War Savings Stamp pledge—Do you know that your government needs all the money pledged, even though the war is over? Don't fall down now. Keep up the good work and save every quarter you have promised. You will be doubly glad of it in 1923 when you get your cash with interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Culberson have been occupying their Los Angeles home for a month. They will shortly return to La Crescenta.

The Red Cross classes need you, with your scissors and your thimbles, in the making of garments for the refugees in Belgium, France and Italy. Winter is upon them, and a garment now will mean the saving of a life, perhaps. These poor people are without clothing or material to make clothing—not a home, a house to shelter some of them. We must see them through this winter—house, clothe and feed them. Come out and do what you can at the Red Cross classes Tuesdays and Thursdays. Mrs. Ayers and Mrs. Miller will be glad to see you and put you to work.

The knitting squad has wool to give out if your fingers still find time. See your lieutenant.

Mrs. Lewenstein has had her son, George, home for a few days.

The Glendale and Montrose railway forces are all back again. Glad to see them and hope their recovery will be permanent.

Mr. Ayers, who was severely ill with influenza, is rapidly recovering.

Dr. Weber is improving his place with a stone house. Now that building restrictions are lifted, there will be a big boom in all sorts of improvements.

Mr. Poller and Mr. Anderson, who had charge of the drive for the war fund, report a goodly sum over the quota prescribed for La Crescenta.

Miss Lynette Wise is living in Los Angeles for the winter months.

Lieutenant Nettleton writes from camp that he has 5,000 horses and mules to look after, and if an epidemic of glanders is prevented he may be home soon.

One of H. Buscar's sons, who is in a base hospital near Paris, will be invalided home and will probably reach here by the new year.

Ray Cookson is also in a base hospital, but Mr. Cookson has not heard lately of his condition. We hope he is on his way home.

Mrs. Kidd and Georgiana Kidd are wintering in Glendale and their La Crescenta home is empty.
